Who is eligible?

Current WRHA/Shared Health healthcare employees, and individuals who have retired from WRHA/Shared Health including partner facilities, programs, and agencies.

How to purchase

Employees can purchase and renew passes year-round at any City of Winnipeg recreation facility or 1 - 395 Main Street with a valid form of proof of employment.

1. Employee identification card
2. Recent paystub
3. Letter stating employment on company letterhead.
4. Retired employees, email smilotte@wrha.mb.ca for a letter of eligibility. Please provide ID# if available, retirement date/year and where you worked.

Can friends and family be sponsored for the reduced rate?

Yes. Sponsoring employees, including retired employees, are not required to have a membership to sponsor a maximum of five people per year. A completed sponsorship form and payment can be dropped off at any City of Winnipeg recreation facility or 1 - 395 Main Street. The sponsoring employee must be present to provide proof of employment.

Refunds/Transfers

There are no refunds. Passes cannot be transferred from one person to another. They are for exclusive use of the original purchaser.

Medical Holds

A pass can only be put on hold with a doctor's note indicating the effective date that the member is unable to use the pass and when it's expected the pass can be used again. The pass will be deactivated and placed on a hold until a letter is provided indicating the member is ready to use the pass again. The expiry date will be adjusted to reflect the lost time. Email smilotte@wrha.mb.ca for a medical suspension form.
