

Do you know a champion?

---

Nominate one today!

A champion may be Anglophone or they may be Francophone. They may be:

- Someone who actively promotes the use of French in the workplace and with clients/patients.
- Someone who has a heightened understanding of the value of French to our francophone clients/patients.
- Someone who has worked very hard to learn or improve their French.
- Someone who has supported an employee or a colleague in their efforts to learn French.
- Someone who actively looks for solutions to find services in French for their clients when they can't offer it themselves.
- Someone who does not speak French, only knows how to say "Bonjour, comment ça va", but says it to all their francophone clients/patients.
- Someone who is bilingual, working at a non-designated facility, but who takes pride in using their French with their francophone clients/patients.
- Someone who goes the extra mile to follow the French Language Services policies.
- Someone who has managed a complex translation project.
- Someone who gathered up some French books for a francophone child at Children's Hospital.
- You. If someone nominates you!
