

Long Term Care Hand Hygiene Questions for Quiz

1. Hand Hygiene is the most important way to prevent the spread of germs.

True or False

2. Hands should be clean before putting on gloves.

True or False

3. Hands should be cleaned after removing gloves.

True or False

4. Hands can be washed with hand sanitizer even if they are visibly dirty.

True or False

5. Hands should be cleaned before doing an aseptic/clean procedure (IV start, wound care).

True or False

6. Hands should be cleaned after doing an aseptic/clean procedure (IV start, wounds care).

True or False

7. Hands should be cleaned after using a tissue to wipe your nose.

True or False

8. Hands should be cleaned after contact with a patient or their environment.

True or False

9. Hands should be cleaned after contact with a patients' equipment.

True or False

10. After cleaning your hands, turn off tap with paper towel to prevent re-contamination.

True or False

11. When washing your hands, you don't need to clean your fingertips.

True or False

12. After using hand sanitizer, allow to air dry.

True or False

13. After using hand sanitizer, you can dry your hands by wiping them on your pants.

True or False

14. Visitors should clean their hands after visiting a patient.

True or False

15. Visitors hands should be cleaned before helping feed their friend/family member.

True or False

16. Visitors should clean hands after settling belongings and before contact with patient

True or False

17. Gel nails, artificial nails or extenders are not to be worn by direct care staff

True or False