

ENHANCED DROPLET/CONTACT PRECAUTIONS

PATIENT PLACEMENT

- Single room preferred
- Consult ICP for co-horting
- If shared room: Separate by 2 metres (6 feet); draw curtains
- Door may remain open
- For aerosol-generating medical procedures (AGMPs) ideally transfer to airborne infection isolation room (AIIR) or close door

HAND HYGIENE

- Before providing care or contact with the care environment
- Before aseptic or clean procedures
- After body fluid exposure risk
- After providing care or contact with the care environment

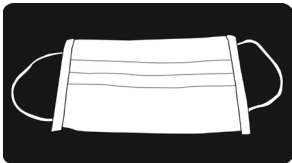

GLOVES

- Before entering room/bed space
- Remove before leaving room/bed space
- Change between procedures if contaminated

GOWN

- Before entering room/bed space
- Remove before leaving room/bed space
- Change between procedures if contaminated

MASKS - Procedure or Surgical N95 Respirator

- Procedure or surgical mask when entering room or bedside
- N95 respirator for aerosol-generating medical procedures
- Remove after leaving room or bed space

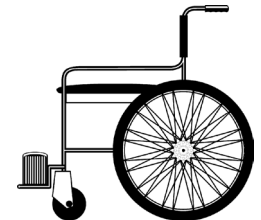

EYE PROTECTION

- Before entering room/bed space
- Remove after leaving room/bed space

EQUIPMENT

- Dedicate equipment or clean and disinfect between uses

TRANSPORT

- Transport for medically essential purposes only
- Person requiring precautions wears surgical or procedure mask and performs hand hygiene
- Staff to put on clean PPE
- Notify receiving department in advance

Visitors: Please report to nursing station before entering room.

Additional Instructions: _____